

Methodists Will Celebrate Asbury At Philly Today

(By Associated Press)
Chicago, Oct. 26.—American Methodism will unite at Washington tomorrow to honor the memory of its own St. Francis whose landing at Philadelphia 1771 will have its 150 anniversary, according to announcements from Methodist headquarters here today.

On a bleak October Francis Asbury stepped from the ship after 52 days of sleeping on the deck, hard fare and hardships for his portion. Asbury joined the Methodists as a boy of thirteen. At sixteen he heard his call to preach. At twenty-two he was ordained and at twenty-six volunteered and was accepted for service in America. He was poor but friendly folk in Bristol, Eng., fitted him with a new suit of clothes and gave him ten pounds. When he took up the torch at Philadelphia he carried its flames from Boston to Savannah and as far west as Ohio.

Not alone was he the pioneer bishop of Methodism, he was the first bishop of any church consecrated on American soil. He was the originator of Methodist missions, and the first Sunday School on this continent was the child of his endeavor. He sent his preachers to the forest depths, most destitute settlements of human habitation and wherever a group of log cabins were gathered thither would a man of prayer come to point to the city which hath foundations and claim the hamlet for the Empire of Christ.

Francis Asbury, scattered as good seed in all sorts of soil, 16,500 sermons. In the thirty years of his life he travelled 270,000 miles, presided at 224 conferences, ordained 4,000 preachers, read 100 pages a day, often with his saddle for a study and its pommel for his desk. He crossed the Alleghenies sixty times. When perils of the wilderness had every ill that the flesh is heir to.

According to the announcement Methodism intends to present to the nation Asbury's statue in bronze on a site in Washington which has been granted by congress and President Harding will unveil the statue and give a brief eulogy.

Cabinet of Real Artists in Japan

(By Associated Press)
Tokio, Oct. 26.—Japan has a cabinet of artists and Premier Hara heads the list. Writings and paintings of some of the great men of Japan of today brought big prices at a recent auction held by the Tokio Fine Arts Club.

Three pictures painted by Mr. Hara sold for the equivalent of $600 and another of four fetched about $800.

Prince Yamagata's productions brought about $250 to $300 while some kakemono written with proverbs in the Japanese language by Prince Saionji brought from $200 to $300.

A chrysanthemum painted by Mr. Noda, the minister of communications sold for $60 and an orchid from his brush fetched $70.

Mr. Yamamoto, minister of agriculture and commerce had a picture and Mr. Tokonami, the home minister, a poem.

No Voda to Be Found in Russia

(By Associated Press)
Moscow, Oct. 27.—In three weeks of travel through Soviet Russia the Associated Press correspondent has seen but one intoxicated man. That was a workman in Moscow who was so far under the influence of liquor that he was unable to tell a group of curious and thirsty men where he found the liquor.

The new decree permitting 12 per cent of alcohol in beverages has not produced the results wine-bibbers and beer-lovers had hoped for. Wine cellars have not produced hidden supplies and apparently there are no vegetables, fruit or grain available for conversion into drinks.

Restaurants and cafes have no alcoholic drinks for sale. There is an abundance of kvas and various non-fermented drinks alleged to be made from fruit but probably largely chemical in their composition.

If there are alcoholic stores in Russia they have not yet reached the markets of Central and Northern Russia. The enactment of the law permitting the sale of alcoholic beverages of low grade was defended

Bobbed Hair a Defense

(By Associated Press)
Baltimore, Oct. 26.—A girl's fitness for length of her hair is a standard, has little to do with the fact that she wears a bobbed hair.

Because he wears a bobbed hair, a girl is not a defenseless victim of the storm. She is a girl who will be lost. The college of Baltimore is a three masted ship which was back in the water.

"It is difficult to find a girl who is not more than fifty years old," said a representative of the damage.

Refusing, at first, to yield for questions, he permitted Representative Longworth, Republican, Ohio, to ask him something; and Republicans asserted tonight that the reply had turned the tide against him.

The Ohio member wanted to know if the report was true that Mr. Blanton had declared an intention to mail 250,000 copies of the undelivered speech with its offending affidavits after the house had ordered it stricken from the Record.

Only a lack of money, he said, prevented its mailing to every voting man in the United States.

Created a Stir
Instantly half a dozen representatives were on their feet trying to break in. Representative Blanton had reiterated that the publication had been sent out "in a just cause," that no law had been violated. Dramatically he pleaded with the house for the sake of his wife and children to put back into the Record his own undelivered speech in which he declared there was not one word calculated to give offense. Republicans objected.

The substitute resolution (respondent) Representative Garrett, D.
